AMONG THE CHURCHES

MISS HALLIE Q. BROWN

Mme. Hallie Q. Brown Elocutionist

Mme. Jean Hodges Dramatic Soprano

TWO of the greatest artists of the race will appear in recital WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 3D, at Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, 16th and Lydia, will be assisted by Kansas City's musical leaders, PROF. R. G. JACKSON at the piano, PROF. CHARLES WATTS, violinist, and PROF. CLYDE LEROY GLASS in piano solo. Program, 8:45 promptly.

ADMISSION, 35 AND 25 CENTS.

EBENEZER A. M. E. CHURCH.
Quarterly meeting at Ebenezer Sunday was one of the largest and best along all lines in the history of the Church. The Presiding Elder, Rev. A. A. Gilbert, was at his best and delivered two powerful gospel sermons morning and evening. The Rev. Chandler of Cain Chapel preached an uplifting, soul-stirring sermon in the afternoon. Allen Chapel Choir, under the matchless leadership of Prof. Jackson, was out in full and furnished music for the Communion services. Class 3, Brother Holler, leader, still has the banner. The Misses Edith Greenlee and Mamie Maxey of Ebenezer Sunday School are pupils at the summer school of music at Allen Chapel. The Vine Street Baptist Church Choir, The Friendship Baptist Church Choir and Rev. Brooks, his choir and a number of his members from Independence, Mo., have secured sections for the Hodges-Brown Recital at Ebenezer Wednesday evening, July 3. Mrs. A. Masir, from Ft. Scott, Kan., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn on Lydia. Mrs. Sadie Dimery will attend the State Allen Endeavor Convention at Macon, Mo., also Mrs. W. T. Osborne. The Clubs of the Church, under the leadership of the Efficient Presidents, are holding together during the severe warm weather and are ever ready to do their bit for Ebenezer. Mrs. Louise Stewart, organist, is planning to have her pupils come to the church for their lessons during the warm weather.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended. Mrs. John Ralls is much better and will be at home to friends in a few days. Mr. George W. Taylor was very sick but is much better at this writing. Mr. William Patterson and McCombs gave $2 fans to the Church, for which we are very thankful. Don't forget the B. Y. P. U. meets every Sunday at 5 p. m. All are invited.

JAMISON TEMPLE C. M. E. CHURCH.

The financial effort that was launched six weeks ago that ended the third Sunday was a decided success, $704.67. We take this method of thanking our many friends for their hearty support. Mrs. Ella Randall won the first prize. Mrs. Stella Cain the second.

Our pastor, Rev. N. T. Walker, has been confined to his bed for the last eight days. We are proud to say that he is up again and hopes to fill his pulpit Sunday morning and at night. Out of the many members that joined on the last Sunday was Mr. Conaway of Memphis who is one of the faithful members of Phillips Chapel. We are delighted that he has cast his lot with us.

All were glad to see Mrs. Emma Buttler last Sunday. She has been to Atlanta, Ga., with her sick husband. She reports him in a convalescent state. Mrs. W. H. Nickens is on the sick list. Miss Mabel Cunningham is up again.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

The services were well attended all day Sunday, this being our rally day. We had quite a success. We raised $1,005 and are still working and intend to fight on until we get a new church. All of the tribes did fine. In the afternoon we had the pastors from both cities and their choirs with us and spent quite an enjoyable time. In the evening Undertaker Watkins delivered a splendid address on the "Progress of the Negro." We were benefited by this talk. The Sunday School at 9:30 was well attended. We welcome all to visit us.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. Bacote preached a grand sermon last Sunday morning, which was enjoyed by a vast congregation. In the evening services the pastor again preached a beautiful sermon, which was enjoyed by all. During the day there were six additions to the church, of which two received the ordinance of baptism. Mrs. Bacote has been taking a two weeks' vacation for a much needed rest. The Moonlight Social, given by the B. Y. P. U., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reeves last Tuesday evening, was a grand success. The B. Y. P. U. Choral Club furnished the music at the opening of the Eighth Street Baptist Temple on the Kansas side last Sunday evening. Next Sunday evening the B. Y. P. U. Choral Society will render a grand program in this church. Everybody is invited to attend all of our services.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH.

Another Sunday passes with well attendance all day, with spiritual and inspiring sermons by the assistant pastor, Rev. S. R. Wilson, taking for his text, "The Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness." He is a strong and noble young man, doing a great work for God. Sunday School was largely attended by both young and old. Instead of Miss Frankie Ellis being the second successful winner of the prize given in the Sunday School Rally, Miss Manola Stewart was the winner. Three cheers! The B. Y. P. U. meets every Sunday at 6 p. m. Our lesson, "Social Problems and Their Challenge," was beautifully instructed by Brother L. E. Boyd, who is especially prepared in this work. Special services by the B. Y. P. U. next Sunday. The Church Cleaning Club will meet with Sister Tullis, 2815 Norton. Refreshments will be served. This is a great and good club. It has done much to improve this church. It has already had $148 worth of work done and is still improving. It is instructed and overseen by Sister Stirman, one of Allen Chapel's good members, and is president, and Sister Fowler is chaplain. We pray God to speed them on. Our beloved pastor is still improving by our prayers and the good doctors. We long for the time of his service again. He would like to know of the Willing Workers' Club, The Vineyard Labors and the We-Will-Try Club. The entire public is invited to attend all services.

GREENWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH.

Our services Sunday were well attended in all our departments. Our pastor, Rev. G. T. Mosby, preached two splendid sermons and his discourses were very much appreciated by a large congregation. Last Saturday evening the Sunday School children were surprised with a nice little joy ride to Swope Park, accompanied by the superintendent and the teachers. The Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. C. Jacobs, 120 Mill street, Rosedale, and a delicious luncheon was served. Chorus rehearsal Tuesday evening and prayer service Wednesday evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The program for Children's Day was well rendered by the primary and intermediate classes. The Young Women's Mission Circle held their regular meeting with Mrs. Justine Rollins on 12th street, Kansas City, Kas. They will go on their Annual Picnic Tuesday, July 24. The Aid Society was well attended at Mrs. Marie Walls, 2419 Vine street. The Violet Entertainment, given by Mrs. H. Robinson and others, was both a financial and social success. The attendance at all the regular services of all departments has been good and the spiritual and financial interest helpful and encouraging. The number of those paying their rally pledge increases. One addition to the church. Next Sunday, June 30th, will be the final Rally Day, with services at 11 a. m., 3:30 p. m., and at 8 p. m. Each member is requested to be present and do their "dead level best" financially. Our friends and the public are earnestly urged to come and help us pay the last note against our church proper. Brother William H. Thomas, pastor of Allen Chapel, A. M. E. Church, will preach for us at 3:30 p. m. Other ministers and their congregations are invited to be with us. We are working for a great day at 24th and Woodland. Come and take a part.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

Dr. William H. Thomas, the minister, occupied the pulpit Sunday morning. He delivered a strong, spiritual will be a musical recital at St. John Church Monday night, July 1, given by Miss Mable Vaughn. Music lovers will miss a treat if they miss this recital. Miss Cleona Russell will recite from Dunbar on the occasion. Miss Russell is at home in this class of work and will be sure to please the audience. Mrs. Emma Baugh and Mrs. Katie Wilson left Thursday for Streator, Ill., to attend the bedside of Mrs. Baugh's daughter, who is very sick. We hope she will improve. Mrs. Irena Thomas is very sick at Douglas Hospital. Don't miss our song service Sunday evening.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Afro-American Employment & Investment Co. wishes to announce that from July 1st they will give one-eighth of all property sold the next two months to the Wheatley-Provident Hospital.
